2017 European Mixed Team Championships

Ladies and Gentlemen,

Once again, we welcome You in our city. It is our pleasure to welcome the best players of European Badminton in Lubin. Organization of European Mixed Team Championships is the most important stage of our badminton journey and the crowning achievement of our hard work. We are proud that our experience and events that we organized gained appreciation of badminton world in Europe, which allowed us to meet again.

Badminton is a sport which requires its players to distinguish themselves with technique, ability to think and predict the moves of their opponent's, speed, precision and cleverness.

All of it contributes to badminton being a sport that makes an amazing show. This is what we are counting on to achieve this year.

Szanowni Państwo,

Ponownie serdecznie witamy w naszym mieście. Miło nam gościć najlepszych zawodników europejskiego badmintona. Organizacja Mistrzostw Europy Drużyn Mieszanych to najważniejszy etap naszej badmintonowej przygody i ukoronowanie ciężkiej pracy. Jesteśmy dumni z tego, że nasze doświadczenie oraz organizowane imprezy uzyskały wysoką ocenę środowiska badmintonowego w Europie, co pozwoliło nam spotkać się ponownie.

Badminton to sport, który wymaga od swoich zawodników, by wyróżniali się techniką, przygotowaniem kondycyjnym, umiejętnością myślenia i przewidywania uderzeń przeciwnika, szybkością, precyzją, wytrwałością, reflekssem, siłą oraz sprytem. Kwestią istotną w tej grze jest także to, aby umiejętnie wykorzystywać słabości rywala.

Wszystko to sprawia, że badminton jest sportem stanowiącym niesamowite widowisko, na co liczymy i w tym roku.

2017 European Mixed Team Championships

Dear badminton friends,

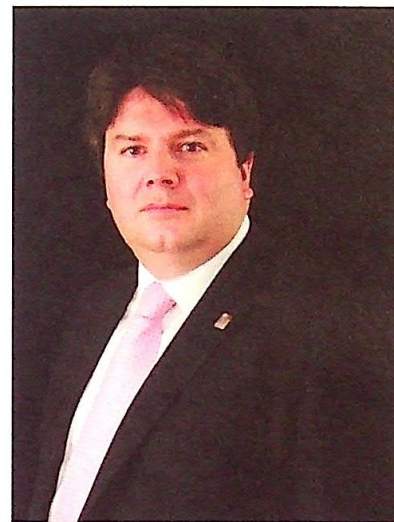

Welcome back to Lubin! For the third consecutive year, we are back in the impressive Regional Sport Centrum Hall. After two massive successes in 2015 and 2016, thanks to Marek Zawadka and his dedicated team, we are happy to be able to take one of our elite events to their city, to display the organizers efforts and capabilities to viewers from all over the World.

The 2017 European Mixed Team Championships (#EMTC17) sees Europe's best 12 national teams playing over 5 days for the prestigious title of being Europe's best. 7 teams, amongst those the hosts Poland and the reigning champions Denmark, were directly qualified for the event, while Sweden, Switzerland, France, Ireland and Bulgaria all are coming via a qualification event played back in November 2016.

Europe's finest players will be in Lubin that week, and all European badminton eyes will be focusing on the Olympic medalists Carolina Marin (Spain), Viktor Axelsen/Christinna Pedersen/Kamilla Rytter Juhl (Denmark) and Marcus Ellis/Chris Langridge (England) as they are leading their respective nations in the chase for yet another medal for their collection.

In our previous edition back in 2015 in Leuven (Belgium), the 12-team format saw its beginning – a format which proved successful and very friendly to the audience with the intimate 2-court setup. Denmark won the title in 2015, and they are arriving in Lubin as the favourites to the retain the title after a record year 2016, winning numerous of titles globally.

In this connection, I would like to thank Marek Zawadka, not only the main driving force in the organization, but also the newly elected President of the Polish Badminton Association, for a continuous strong cooperation during the last few years. New standards have been set in the previous two European Championships hosted in Lubin, so we are all looking forward to the coming one in week 7.

My sincere thanks also to YONEX, our strong equipment partner, and all the volunteers and technical officials coming to Lubin, to be part of the 2017 European Mixed Team Championships.

To all the players and all the teams, best of luck!

Gregory Verpoorten
President Badminton Europe

 YONEX

I would like to express my very warm welcome to all athletes, officials and badminton fans who attend the European Mixed Team Championships 2017 in Lubin, Poland.

As a partner of Badminton Europe Confederation for already 14 years it is a great honor for YONEX to be official supplier of this event in Lubin and to be part of the Championships that will crown the best Badminton Mixed Team of Europe for 2017.

The great results of European Badminton players in 2016 such as Carolina Marin, who won the gold medal at Rio Olympic Games or Viktor Axelsen as the BWF Super Series Finals Champion indicate a bright future of European Badminton.

Founded in 1946, YONEX's corporate philosophy to „contribute to the world through innovative technology and the highest quality products“ continues to guide us, driving us to produce the highest quality products for our consumers. Every day, we continue to dedicate all of our creativity and resources to achieve our goals.

A very special thanks I would like to express to Badminton Europe Confederation, the city of Lubin and the organizing team together with all volunteers which already hosted the European Junior Championships in 2015 and the European U17 Championships in 2016 and created unforgettable events under perfect conditions and service for players and spectators.

I wish all teams and players every success at the championships event and I am looking forward to another unforgettable experience for badminton fans all over Europe.
